Becky's Billet-Doux: (French for "Love Letter")

Pentecost

For everything there is a season, and time for every matter under heaven... Ecclesiastes 3:1

At the end of May we moved into the church season of Pentecost, I'm reminded not only of the seasons of our weather but the seasons of our lives and the seasons of the church. The celebratory season of Easter ended on Pentecost, May 24th. We are now in the season of Pentecost and remain there until Advent, Nov. 29th.

Pentecost is interrupted by several church holidays: Holy Trinity Sunday, May 31st; Reformation Sunday, Oct. 25th; All Saints Sunday, Nov. 1 and Christ the King Sunday, Nov. 22nd.

Pentecost is our longest season. The Paraments are green to represent growth as we follow Jesus through his travels and God matures our spirits in Him. Of course, the paraments change colors for the church holidays just to keep our Altar Guild on their toes and to make sure that they remember the process of changing the paraments.

Seasons change every year on our calendars and on our church calendar. I think God does this to remind us that nothing stays the same on earth. Everything here is temporary. As much as we try to ensure that nothing at the church changes, it does change.

The Season of Elizabeth being the call process has ended. My season in west Texas is ending. My beginning in Caldwell is just around the corner. Robert and I are excited for this new chapter in our lives and are excited to be coming "home" to Elizabeth LC.

Often, we despise change. It is the same in most churches just as it is in other places like work and home. But there are changes we welcome. New babies change everything yet are welcomed additions (like baby Berkley!) New musicians add to worship and are welcomed. Even though we battle change, and most often lose, not all changes are bad. One thing we know for sure, however, is that God does not change.

The seasons change, other things change, but God is the same immovable, immutable rock. He is forever and ever the same. "Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the Lord, who has compassion on you." (Isaiah 54:10, NIV) Isn't that enough? Isn't the consistent, never-changing love of God enough? Even if the sun turned purple? Or if water started running uphill? Isn't the Love of God enough?

The unshakable love of God is enough, and it is eternal. All the temporal ever-changing things of earth don't hold a candle to the unchangeable God and his unchangeable love for you. I hope this brings you comfort as we welcome in the long season of Pentecost, and as Robert & I make our home in Caldwell. God is here. He loves you, and that never changes, for all eternity. Amen.

Pastor Becky

PRAYER OF THE MONTH : Holy Lord, God of all things seen and unseen, as we navigate this life it is such a comfort to know that you are here for us. You never leave us and you always guide us. Help us to seek you before we react to the world. Help us to rest in you instead of worrying about the unknown. Thank you for calling us to you and holding on to us forever. In Jesus' name, Amen.

We are grateful that our fellowship room can host bereavement gatherings, showers, parties, and other special events. To help keep this space welcoming for everyone, we kindly ask that all groups follow fellowship room etiquette. Please return tables and chairs to their original setup, remove all decorations and personal items, wipe down surfaces, and take out the trash before leaving. Restoring the room ensures it is clean, orderly, and ready to bless the next event that gathers here. Thank you for your care and consideration.

Please support weekly fellowship time after church

We would love your help in supporting our weekly fellowship time after church service! This is a special opportunity for our church family to gather, connect and encourage one another over light refreshments and conversations. You can help in one of two ways:

Host Weekly Fellowship: Volunteers are to help host our fellowship time.

Hosting may include setting out snacks, making coffee, cleaning up. Please sign up on the fellowship chart on the bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall.

Replenish Cookies or Snacks: You can bring cookies or other simple refreshments to replenish what we share after service. This is a wonderful way to contribute even if you are unable to host. Your participation helps strengthen our church community and provides a meaningful space for friendship and fellowship each week. Thank you for considering this opportunity to serve!

CRAFTS & QUILTING DAYS - EVERY THURSDAY at 1 PM

Crafts and quilting days continue each Thursday at 1 pm. It is never too late to join the fun & fellowship with a wonderful group of ladies - ask any of the ladies for more info!

Mission Moment

by Pastor Bryce Formwalt
Director of Mission Growth

A Holy Calling

Ever think about what a calling is? Both Christians and non-Christians alike sometimes refer to their career, volunteer work, role, or purpose in their family or social group as a calling. One worldly formula is GIFTS + PASSION + VALUES = CALLING. But as followers of Jesus, how do we understand what it means to be called?

Our theme for the 2026 Texas District Gathering is CALLED, drawn from a single verse penned by the Apostle Paul in his final letter to Timothy, a young pastor whom he has mentored. In 2 Timothy 1:9, Paul writes: "He has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began." In this single verse, Paul both proclaims the gospel while grounding for us what it means to be called.

Paul begins this verse by articulating that calling cannot be separated from the gospel. Paul writes, "He has saved us and called us..." Our call flows from God's grace that we have received and not the other way around. No one is called because they have earned it, proved themselves, or have the right credentials. As Paul writes, "not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace." How often do we look at our past mistakes, our lack of training or experience, or our fear of failure and conclude that God must be calling someone else? But God's Word is clear: the call has nothing to do with our works, but rests solely on God's own purpose and grace. God delights in calling ordinary, unfinished people and equipping them as he sends them.

While God starts by calling ordinary people, Paul points out that the call itself is a "holy calling." The word "holy" is often translated as "set apart; consecrated or dedicated to the Lord." When God calls an ordinary person to Kingdom service, the call is not merely a career path or volunteer activity that matches their personality or brings them a sense of self-fulfillment. Understood biblically, God's call is a sacred setting apart for Kingdom purposes. God calls people to all different kinds of mission and ministry, both in our ordinary, day-to-day life as well as out into new mission fields that will stretch our faith.

So, what does this mean for us? I believe that this is a reminder to pay close attention to what God is up to. Ask, "God, what are you up to in my life? How are you calling me to be set apart for particular Kingdom service?" And, this is also a call to pray for God to stir up in others as well. The church can and should be a place where we pray for, encourage, and equip one another to take the steps needed to faithfully respond to how God is calling us.

Friends, God is still calling people of faith into Kingdom service, just as he always has. May we help one another recognize and respond in faith to his holy calling according to his purpose and grace.
